

How Do Gender Policies Undermine Rather Than Empower Women?

Sixbert SANGWA • December 09, 2024

In a world increasingly defined by rebellion against God’s order, the ideology of gender equality has become a pervasive force, presenting itself as a noble crusade for justice and fairness. Yet beneath this façade lies an insidious agenda—a deliberate effort to distort God’s design, destroy the family, and dehumanize women under the guise of empowerment. This rebellion, far from being progressive, is a tool of Satan, designed to ensnare humanity in confusion, discord, and eventual destruction.

From the moment of creation, God established a clear and perfect order for humanity. He created men and women distinct in their roles yet equal in value, each reflecting unique aspects of His glory. In Genesis, we see the deliberate intentionality of God, as Adam was formed first and tasked with leadership, stewardship, and protection of creation (Genesis 2:15-18). Eve was then created as his helper and companion, equal in worth but divinely purposed to nurture and complement Adam (Genesis 2:20-24). This framework is neither oppressive nor archaic; it is the foundation for human flourishing. Yet, Satan, the enemy of all that is good, seeks to undermine God's creation. The push for gender equality is not about justice—it is a calculated attack on God's perfect design, one that sows chaos and leads to spiritual death.

Modern feminism, which masquerades as liberation, is one of the enemy's most potent tools. While its early iterations sought necessary reforms, today's feminism promotes rebellion against God-ordained roles. Women are encouraged to compete with men in all areas of life, to speak, dress, and behave like men, and even to reject the blessings of motherhood and family life. This confusion of gender roles has led many down the destructive path of LGBTIQ lifestyles. That's where Satan is leading our generation!

This rebellion is not a step toward freedom but a descent into nihilism. Women who engage in traditionally male activities, games, and professions under the pretense of equality are abandoning their God-given dignity. They are not only rejecting their unique role as nurturers and stewards of the family but are also dishonoring their Creator. Our ancestors understood this wisdom - they weren't primitive or ignorant as modern society suggests, but rather obedient to God's divine order. The Bible sternly warns against this confusion: "A woman is not to wear male clothing, and a man is not to put on a woman's garment, for everyone who does these things is detestable to the Lord your God." (Deuteronomy 22:5). It is a mistake of tragic proportions to think that adopting the behaviors or appearances of the opposite gender is a step toward equality. Instead, it is a rejection of God's plan and an embrace of Satan's lies.

Those who embrace gender equality and feminism as defined by modern culture are not advancing society but descending into nihilism—a belief in nothingness, a rejection of divine truth. By striving to erase gender distinctions, society is not empowering women; it is robbing them of their identity and purpose. This nihilism extends to how women are encouraged to dress, walk, and behave like men, forsaking the beauty and grace with which God endowed them. Men, too, are drawn into this rebellion, often shirking their responsibilities as leaders and protectors. The results are catastrophic: broken homes, confused children, and a society spiraling into moral and spiritual decay.

The modern world falsely paints Satan as an advocate for women's rights and equality. Nothing could be further from the truth. Satan does not love anyone—he hates all of us. He particularly targets women, seeking to destroy their God-given role as bearers of life, nurturers, and stewards of the family. His goal is not to empower women but to dehumanize them, stripping them of their God-given dignity and leading them into destruction.

Today, we witness the erosion of trust within families as traditional roles crumble. Men, who are divinely appointed to carry and implement the family vision, find themselves unable to lead effectively. Furthermore, some families have adopted a corporate-style governance where decision-making power is determined by financial contribution, similar to shareholders in a company. This business-like approach to family leadership further distorts God's divine order, reducing sacred family bonds to mere economic transactions and undermining the spiritual foundation of family leadership. Women are losing their respected position as nurturers and homemakers, while men struggle to fulfill their divine responsibility as family heads. Instead of seeking godly qualities in potential wives, young men now prioritize worldly measures like salary and educational status. Many families have devolved into disconnected units where each member pursues their own path, driven by worldly desires rather than divine purpose. Children, lacking proper spiritual guidance, scatter in different directions instead of following their family's God-given mission.

As Anderson \(2023\) notes, this rebellion has led to skyrocketing rates of divorce, depression, and alienation from God. Satan's trap does not end there. Now, through advancements in artificial intelligence and robotics, society is on the verge of replacing women altogether.

In the coming years, we face an even graver threat. After decades of misleading women to equate themselves with men and reject their God-given roles, society has eroded the foundation of family trust. Now, as a direct response to women's alleged "lack of submission," manufacturers plan to introduce female robots by 2026, programmed for complete submission and capable of conceiving and giving birth to children (Esposito, 2024; Carros, 2024, 2024; Ancel, 2024). These machines are not just technological novelties—they represent the ultimate rejection of God's design.

The promotion of these robots as replacements for "unsubmissive" women marks a new level of abomination, even beyond the LGBTIQ agenda. Men, frustrated by the current crisis in finding submissive wives, may be tempted to embrace these artificial alternatives. This technological perversion of marriage and family represents a complete departure from God's plan, transforming society into a soulless, godless dystopia. This development echoes the warnings of Scripture about humanity's rebellion: "Professing to be wise, they became fools and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man, birds, four-footed animals, and reptiles" (Romans 1:22-23).

As Harari \(2016\) reveals in his concept of "Homo Deus," humanity is entering an era where technology seeks to replace God. This movement, known as transhumanism, is a direct challenge to God’s sovereignty. By blurring the lines between human and machine, society is attempting to create life on its own terms—a rebellion that mirrors the pride and arrogance of the Tower of Babel (Genesis 11:4).

The only solution is to return to God's divine order for marriage and family. Women often struggle trying to match men's roles and behaviors - it's an exhausting and unnatural endeavor that goes against their created nature. Meanwhile, men find themselves uncertain how to respond to these changing dynamics, creating tension and discord in relationships. As Scripture clearly teaches, "Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord, because the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church" (Ephesians 5:22-23). Yet this command is balanced with an equally powerful mandate: "Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her" (Ephesians 5:25). This mutual relationship of loving leadership and respectful submission reflects Christ's relationship with His church.

When we honor God's design, everything falls naturally into place. Let us heed this biblical call, rejecting the rebellion of this age and standing firm in the truth of God's Word. Women, embrace your God-given role with joy and dignity, "being submissive to your own husbands, so that even if some disobey the word, they may be won over without a word by the way their wives live" (1 Peter 3:1). Men, rise to the challenge of being godly leaders who "live with your wives in an understanding way... showing them honor as coheirs of the grace of life" (1 Peter 3:7). Together, we can build families that honor God and resist the schemes of the enemy.

In all, just as Satan targeted Eve in the Garden of Eden with deceptive promises, he continues his assault on women today through false ideologies of empowerment. The enemy's strategy remains consistent - using manipulation and lies to lead humanity away from God's design. Today's gender equality movement, like the serpent's original deception, promises enlightenment while actually leading to destruction. Through artificial intelligence and robotics, Satan's plan reaches a new level of perversion, attempting to completely replace God's creation with artificial alternatives.
